The ROC on Taiwan

As we know, the ROC is the legal government of “China” as spoken of in WWII. However, the ROC failed to maintain its legal position when it had to in WWII. The ROC’s entire post 1945 existence is based on the post-WWIIirteen (SFPT). The ROC, it is true, never recognized the PRC; it was never a member of the UN. Hence the ROC is outside of the UN.

With this recognition, an analysis of Taiwan’s position under international law is possible. The constitution of Taiwan is not an international agreement or an international treaty. It is simply not a valid document under international law. The ROC is not a member of the UN, so it is not a sovereign state. The ROC is not a member of the WTO, so it is not a member of the World Trade Organization. The ROC is not a member of the International Monetary Fund, so it is not a member of the International Monetary Fund.
